

Getting Along with Teachers

Name _____

Write or describe which social skills would be important for you to use in each of the following situations at school:

1. You are planning your course schedule for next year with your counselor/adviser _____

2. You are eating lunch in the school cafeteria _____

3. You do not understand the teacher's assignment _____

4. Being in a class and being required to listen to a "boring" lecture by the teacher _____

5. Trying to deal with a teacher who is in a bad mood _____

6. You are told to quiet down in the assembly in the auditorium _____

7. You pass one of your teachers in the hallway _____

8. You are invited to work on a student committee which represents your class _____

9. You are called to the office to report what you saw on the weekend when the school was vandalized _____

10. You are told by your teacher to work with a group of kids in your class whom you do not like _____